This newsletter is providing you with some brief information, which is considered as necessary and helpful for planning your 2023 season.

A.- World Cup qualifying events for Paris 2024 OG

You all are waiting for the official determination of the World Cup qualifying events for Paris 2024.

The three events taking place in 2023 will be determined at the next EC meeting, 2nd and 3rd of March in Lausanne. In the meantime, we can confirm that the qualification process will start in July 2023.

B.- 2023 International Judges Course

These three courses will be organized at the FIG office in Lausanne (SUI) from the 12th to the 14th of February. Registrations were completed and the final number of participants are:

- 16 judges in TUM (12th February)
- 45 judges in TRA (13th February)
- 21 judges in DMT (14th February)

C.- Junior and WAGC Rules

Following a proposal of the Technical Committee, supported by a very large majority of the national federations present at the meetings in Sofia (BUL) during 2022 World Championships and WAGC, the Executive Committee adopted the amendment to the Junior and WAGC Rules as follows:

2.1 At WAGC, no Q2 is organized. The finalists will be selected from the ranking order after qualifications (Q1) are completed.

Consequently, the rule of the competition groups' winners will not be applied for determining the eight finalists.

Besides, the rule 3.1 (requirement 3 for 11-12 age group) was clarified adding the following word:

One (1) element with 360° somersault rotation AND, at least, 360° of twist.

D.- 2024 Olympic Games Judges' Selection

Following the recent decisions by the FIG Executive Committee, the judges selection procedures for the Paris 2024 Olympic Games were approved. They can be consulted on the Paris 2024 event page on the FIG website. The direct link to the Trampoline Gymnastics document can be found here:
